

In addition to gas-tight chemical suit for special intervention Team, Matissec create and manufacture a complete range of protective clothes against gas and liquid splash projection in Chemical Industry

ALKY helmet

The ALKYLATION process is used on chemical plants for treating the product derived from petroleum cracking operation. This process uses particularly aggressive chemical agents. MATISEC ALKYLATION SUIT range is specifically designed to protect users against this particular risk.

---

Source URL:

<http://www.matissec.com/products-services/chemical-protection/chemical-protective-clothes/alky-helmet>